Customer Reviews

This was intended for a Christmas gift. The recipient wasn't too thrilled. The entire series published by Penguin Books is really quite clever. They took works by famous individuals, some from the culinary world and reproduced them. I thought it was interesting to read about life in other times. Kudos to Penguin for doing this, anyway!

Some things are hilarious, but the book goes down hill over time. Don't trust any recipes, he merely wrote how he perceived the dish to be made, and anyone with basic cooking knowledge can see the flaws. Nevertheless, it is an interesting old book from a notable author.
